

WYOMING OUTFITTERS & GUIDES ASSOCIATION

2017 GUIDE OF THE YEAR

PAT FIEDOR

Sponsored by SCI
FIRST FOR HUNTERS

PAT FIEDOR WAS BORN AND RAISED

in Sheridan, Wyoming. He graduated from Sheridan High School in 1990, and completed his education with an Associates Degree in Police Science from Sheridan College, and a Bachelors Degree in Criminal Justice at Chadron State College. He then moved to Bozeman, Montana where he was employed by the Gallatin County Sheriff's Department. In 1997 he relocated to Gillette, Wyoming where he worked for the Wyoming Department of Corrections as a Probation and Parole Agent and was able to retire in April, 2013.

Pat and his wife Amanda have four children, Brittany Maya, Ty Maya, Jerzey Fiedor and Jarek Fiedor. They live on the family ranch North of Gillette, WY. Pat and Amanda enjoy raising cattle with their children and with Amanda's grandparents Marion and Mary Scott, parents Dudley and Marilyn Mackey, and brother and sister-in-law Scott and Carey Mackey. Pat works on the ranch helping to manage the cattle, put up hay, fence, and spray weeds.

Pat has been guiding hunters for the P Cross Bar Ranch Trophy Hunts since 2007. The ranch provides guided hunts for mule deer, antelope and buffalo. Pat enjoys the Wyoming outdoors and is an avid hunter, fisherman, and camper. His two favorite past-times are hunting white-tail deer and fly fishing.

Pat's plans for the future include continuing working for the cattle ranch and to someday get his outfitter's license. He is very appreciative of this award and wants to thank all those involved in the nomination process and Marion and Mary Scott for giving him this opportunity. 🦌

